Re: United States v. William Bradley, a/k/a "Red," 19 Cr. 632 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

A status conference in the above-captioned case is scheduled for October 27, 2020. The Government writes respectfully to request that the Court adjourn the status conference for approximately 60 days.

The Government and the defense have been engaged in discussions regarding possible pre-trial disposition. While the discussions are progressing, the COVID-19 pandemic has imposed some impediments and delays, and as such, the parties do not expect to be able to complete these discussions prior to the scheduled conference. Therefore, the Government requests that the Court adjourn the status conference for approximately 60 days, to allow these discussions to continue.

In the event that the Court grants the requested adjournment, and to the extent that standing orders of the District do not already apply, in an abundance of caution, the Government respectfully requests that the Court exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act, from October 27, 2020 to the date that the conference is rescheduled, to permit the parties to continue discussions of possible pre-trial disposition. The Government submits that the ends of justice served by the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

The undersigned has conferred with counsel for the defendant, who has consented to the adjournment and exclusion of time.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney
